Susan Chan

Susan Chan is a post-doctoral fellow at the University of Guelph. She is the lead on the 2020 Bee Vectoring Project. Susan brings together her broad academic credentials in environmental science (Ph.D. 2020), pollination biology (M.Sc. 1991), education (B.Ed. 1992), agriculture (B.Sc. 1986, Diploma 1983), and her work experience in agricultural project management to lead a diverse, multi-disciplinary team with a strong knowledge base in biological control and bee vectoring as well as strong links to the biological control and the agricultural industry in Ontario.