

Ira B. Mandell Biography

Dr. Mandell is an associate professor in the Animal Biosciences Department at the University of Guelph in Guelph, Ontario, Canada. Ira has conducted and published numerous studies investigating live animal management regimen, breed, diet, and post-mortem processing effects on growth performance, carcass, meat and eating quality, and nutrient composition traits. Dr. Mandell has published over 50 peer-reviewed journal articles in the area of animal nutrition, animal production, and meat quality. Dr. Mandell serves as the faculty supervisor of the University of Guelph Meat Science Laboratory.